MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1914.

NO. 24.

FOURTH'S LAWS

FIREWORKS ARE PROHIBITED BEFORE THAT DAY.

LIMIT SIZE AND KIND

Most Stores Will Close—Groceries Open Until Noon—One Delivery of City Mail.

It looks as if there would be no Fourth of July in Maryville if one were to judge by the store windows, for there is not a firecracker, rocket or anything else in sight. This is because of the city ordinance which prohibits the sale or display of fireworks before the Fourth of July.

The same ordinance prohibits the sale or use of dynamite canes, cap pistols or caps, toy cannons, bombs or fire-arms. Firecrackers are limited to three inches in length and one-quarter of an inch in diameter.

But if one should try to do much business downtown next Saturday he will find that Maryville is having a Fourth of July. Nearly every business house is to be closed all or a part of the day. The banks and dry goods stores will be closed all day. The groceries and barber shops have announced that they will close at noon. All the city and county offices will be closed.

There will be one complete delivery of mail in the city July 4, but there will be no rural deliveries. The general delivery window of the postoffice will be open from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The lobby will be open all day.

"DRAG THE ROADS NOW."

Rain Has Made Them Workable, a Condition That May Not Last Long, Says Clary.

"The roads of the county should be dragged now while they are still soft from yesterday's rain, for it may be the last rain we will have for some time," said John Clary, county highway engineer, today.

Mr. Clary says that the county has received no road money from the state since February, but that possibly some more will be sent soon. State Highway Engineer Buffum has written to Mr. Clary urging that the money be made to go as far as possible and that the roads be dragged wherever it is necessary.

The line-up is: Catcher, Wogan; pitcher, Richards; first base, Rissler; second base, Maes; third base, Still; shortstop, Keegin; outfielders, Conklin, Bramble, Skinner and Ewing.

RANDOLPH TALKS AT NORMAL.

Minister Speaks to Students on "The Value of Purpose"—Differentiates It From Desire.

The Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church made a short talk to the Normal students during the assembly hour this morning. His topic was "The Value of Purpose."

"Purpose," said Mr. Randolph, "is the will-directed action to the accomplishment of a definite end." The speaker said that desire was often confused with purpose, but differentiated them by saying that desire was a passive seeking, while purpose implied the active seeking of an ideal.

"Most of us," he continued, "have more desires than we have purposes and are more likely to 'start up the stairway of success' than we are to step up it. Purpose is the concentration of forces, and forms one of the most effective instruments of progress."

MISSOURI FARM FACTS.

State Board of Agriculture Preparing Interesting Lecture With Slides.

"Missouri and Its Agricultural Resources," is the subject of an illustrated lecture being prepared by the state board of agriculture for use in extension work in this state. J. Kelley Wright is preparing the lecture and having the slides made. The lecture will be delivered for the first time at Homeville, Shelby county, July 24.

"Missouri does not get boosted and advertised," said Mr. Wright, "because there are so many sides to the story that no one essential thing is pushed. Colorado is pushed as a mining state. That is its chief feature. Well, Missouri's zinc, lead and coal output would buy the gold mining in Colorado in the same length of time. Missouri ranks first in poultry, mules, peaches, and lead, fruit, strawberries and general and diversified agricultural resources."

"This lecture will not be the truth through a magnifying glass, but just the truth. The slides, one hundred and fifty or more in number, will show the famous saddle horses, the world famous milch cows, the prize winning pigs and sheep and chickens, the fields of grain, the beautiful scenery, the lowing herds under the overhanging trees—all the beautiful and striking things about Missouri agriculture."

J. Kelley Wright has been lecturing on Missouri for six years. "How long will this lecture last?" he was asked. "Well," he replied, "about an hour and a half is the usual length of such lectures, but of course it would be possible to talk until everyone got tired and left, and still leave much untold."

To Attend Union Meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. Lewis M. Hale left Tuesday for Excelsior Springs to visit Mr. Hale's brother, Rev. George Hale. Later Rev. Hale will attend the meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union in Kansas City, and Mrs. Hale will go to Shelby to visit her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hale.

WHAT THEY SAW

SIGHTS AND SCENES IN "MARYVILLE HAS IT."

THE CITY IN MOVIES

Last night Maryville had "Maryville Has It."

The first public exhibition of the motion picture reel of Maryville, made from beginning to end by F. R. Marcell of this city, proved last night the reports that had gone before it telling of its good qualities. It is on the whole a very clear film, and the persons in it are easily recognized. All over the theater could be heard such expressions as "There's So-and-So," "See how Mayor Wright stands with his back to the machine," "Here comes my sister," "Gee! Look at that foolish grin on my face."

The reel begins with a scene at the Burlington station. After the train pulls in the usual large crowd gets off at Maryville, and packed in the motor busses and cabs the persons are started to town. Next comes views of the business streets, with motor cars and delivery wagons hurrying in all directions. And if the real motor cars on the streets honked as much as Miss Oia Smith honked for them in the pictures last night there would be no traffic troubles at the street corners.

A picture of the McDonald factory is shown at closing time. Mr. Marcell did not get more than half of the girls coming out, though for a while he was busily cranking his camera in front of the building many timid ones were going out the side door, jumping off a high platform and cutting across lots in order to avoid the glass eye of the machine. This, however, does not show in the picture.

A view of the Elks club shows the members marching to their flag day exercises. They face the camera in all kinds of moods. Some can't look directly at it and seemed very much ashamed of themselves. To Eldon Irwin it seems the greatest joke of his life. Then there is Dr. Stinson and H. L. Raines and everybody else, with Tom Parle loitering along behind, smiling and bowing to everyone, evidently trying to make up for his being last by not being least.

When the scene shifted to the Central high school it seemed as if the children never would stop pouring out of the doors. They kept coming and coming until it seemed as if Maryville was populated with nothing but school children. Some came with books and some without, some marched stiffly along as if they feared the teacher and were afraid to break ranks, others skipped, jumped or ran down the steps, and some just got down them.

The Normal, churches, water works and electric light plant all came in for their share of allotted space in the film, and it ended with a very good exhibition run by the fire department.

The same reel will be shown again tonight at the Empire theater.

He did not have anything to eat during that time. The man was brought to Maryville Tuesday by Mr. Purcell and taken to St. Francis hospital.

LINEBAUGH WILL

FINAL SETTLEMENT OF $300,000 SUIT MADE YESTERDAY.

DECISION SUSTAINS IT

Supreme Court's Ruling Comes Today—Famous Case Was Filed in October, 1910—Tried Next June.

Yesterday, just three years and two days from the opening day of the trial of the Linebaugh will case, June 28, 1911, the supreme court of Missouri gave its decision sustaining the will. The case was a famous one at the time, involving nearly $300,000. It was brought by eight grandchildren of the deceased, Jacob Linebaugh, in an effort to break his will.

The decision which was given yesterday by A. M. Woodson, presiding judge of the supreme court, and concurred in by the other judges, covers thirty-three typewritten pages. It holds that the case was properly submitted to the jury by the circuit judge, that no error was made in giving or refusing instructions, or in the admission and exclusion of testimony in the trial.

The seven Burch grandchildren and the granddaughter, Mrs. James Andrew, filed the suit contesting the will with the circuit clerk October 27, 1910.

The Linebaugh will case was tried before Judge W. C. Ellison June 28, 1911, and the verdict of the jury sustaining the will was brought in July 7, 1911.

The suit was brought by the heirs of Sarah Jane Burch, who died in June, 1910, a daughter of the late Jacob Linebaugh, and by the only heir of Francis Linebaugh, who was a deceased son of Jacob Linebaugh, Anna Rosetta Andrew. The suit was contested largely on the grounds of undue influence being brought to bear on Mr. Linebaugh by his wife and his son, W. Jeff Linebaugh, when he made out his will, September 1, 1910.

The Linebaugh estate is valued at nearly $300,000. The will was probated in court October 19, 1910. Edward E. Williams was appointed administrator pendente lite.

The death of Jacob Linebaugh occurred in October, 1910, at the age of 82 years. According to the terms of the will, it left nearly all the real and personal property to his widow and his three children, W. J. Linebaugh, Mrs. Julia Farrens and Mrs. Mary Etta Hulise. The seven heirs of his daughter, Sarah Jane Burch, were to receive $500 each when the settlement of the estate was made, and Mrs. Anna Andrew was left $500 and nineteen and a half acres, which she claimed rightfully belonged to her.

The case was one of the most important ones that has been tried in circuit, and was hotly contested. Cook, Cummins & Dawson, assisted by B. R. Martin of St. Joseph, were the attorneys for the plaintiffs, while Shimbargar, Blagg & Ellison, assisted by J. Woodson Peery of Albany, were the attorneys for the Linebaughs.

The jury in the case was composed of James Aldrich, Hugh McDonald, Peter, Schaffer, Charles Dougherty, Andy Garnett, E. E. Coker, W. H. Chambers, Roxie Hocker, Charles Owens, C. A. Dodds and John Kennedy.

The jury, after being out a few hours, returned a verdict sustaining the will. The verdict was signed by ten jurors.

NORMAL SCHOOL STILL GROWS.

More Students This Summer Than Ever Before, And They Are Taking More Advanced Work.

As has been the case every term except one, the present term of the Normal school shows an increase in attendance over all corresponding terms. It is also the largest term the school has ever had from the standpoint of attendance. Today at noon 517 students had registered, and more are expected. This is ahead of the previous high mark of 515, the total registration for the summer term last year.

Not only are there more students in the Normal this summer, but they are more advanced than formerly. The number of classes in advanced work, especially in education and science, is greater than ever before.

Pilots of the eugenic movement were given the following chart recently by W. L. Tower, associate professor at the University of Chicago:

If both parents have light hair, their children will have light hair.

If both parents have dark hair of the glossy variety, about one child out of four will have red hair.

If both parents have fair skins, ninety-one times out of a hundred the child will be a blonde, once out of fifteen times it will be of an intermediate type, and once out of fifty-five times a brunette.

If both parents are tall or short, their children will follow their example, while if one parent is tall and the other short, the children will be either tall or medium, but never "shorties."

"If we develop a race made up wholly of Sir Isaac Newtons and Charles Darwins," said Professor Tower, "who will haul the garbage? We must have an immense diversity of people."—New York World.

DRAGGING EARTH ROADS.

Simplest and Cheapest Way to Maintain Certain Highroads in Good Condition.

The road drag is the simplest and least expensive contrivance yet devised for maintaining earth roads, according to the experts in the U. S. department of agriculture, who are co-operating with state and county authorities in work for better roads.

Properly used, the drag gives the needed crown to the road, smooths out ruts and other irregularities, spreads out puddles of water, thereby accelerating the drying of the road, and makes the surface more or less impervious to water by smearing over the so-called pores in the earthy material. The cost of operation depends upon local conditions and the thoroughness with which the work is done. It is safe to say, however, that it is less expensive than any other efficient system of upkeep.

Farmers' bulletin No. 597 of the department of agriculture discusses under the title of "The Road Drag and How It Is Used" the best methods of maintaining earth roads in good condition by this simple device.

In its simplest form the road drag consists of an ordinary log split in half and the two halves connected like the uprights of a ladder by means of cross sticks or rungs set in. The log should be about 7 or 8 inches in diameter, and from 6 to 8 feet in length. It is better to have it of well seasoned, hard, tough wood. The two semi-cylindrical halves of the log form the runners of the drag, and are usually spaced from 39 to 36 inches apart. The front runner is always placed with the split surface of the wood facing forward, but the rear runner sometimes has its rounded face in front. This is done in order to increase the smearing action of the drag as it passes over the surface of the road.

The two runners are not placed directly behind each other, but are "offset," as it is called, from 12 to 16 inches. This is done because the drag is drawn over the road at an angle sufficient to make the runners free themselves of the material which they scrape.

In order to provide standing room for the man it is usual to nail two boards down upon the rungs parallel to the runners. Standing upon these, a skillful driver will bear his weight in such a way as to aid materially in the successful operation of the drag.

The drag is drawn by a chain which should be about 8 feet long. This can be fastened by eye bolts to each end of the front runner, or one end of the chain can pass through a hole at the discharge end of the front runner, and the other end be looped over the rung at the cutting end of the runner. It is important that the hitching link should be so designed that its position can be changed readily. It is also desirable to provide a metal cutting edge for the front runner. This can be made from a strip of iron or steel, and old wagon tires have frequently proved satisfactory.

The cost of such a drag varies from $2 to perhaps $10 or $12. This practically insignificant outlay will secure an implement that will be of great service to the community for at least three or four years. The fact cannot be overlooked, however, that skill in the use of the drag is indispensable.

The angle that the runners make with the center line of the road, the skew angle, as it might be called, is an important factor. For example, if the dragging is done to increase the crown of the road, the drag should be sufficiently skewed to discharge all material as rapidly as it is collected on the runners. On the other hand, the conditions may be such that it is desirable to carry along this material in order to deposit it where there are depressions in the road's surface. An intelligent operator will soon learn many ways of controlling the action of the drag. The length of the hitching chain, the disposition of the operator's weight, the time when the dragging is done, all these exert a marked influence upon the results.

As to the time for dragging, a safe rule to follow is to drag the road when the material composing the surface contains sufficient moisture to compact readily, but its not sufficiently wet for traffic to produce mud.

Since the weather plays so important a part in the matter, it is not usually possible to arrange continuous employment for teams on the road. It is therefore desirable, whenever possible, to have the dragging done by persons interested in the road, who will do it in the intervals of other occupations.

Paul Sisson and Robert G. Sanders left Tuesday for Estes Park, Col., where they will spend a month.

SEN'S REPRESENTATIVES

Beneath Dignity of Carranza to Go to Meet Villa.

Douglas, Ariz., July 1.—The definite statement that the proposed trip of General Carranza to meet General Villa in Torreon would be "beneath the dignity of the first chief" and that therefore Carranza had sent personal representatives was made at Constitutional headquarters in Agua Prieta. It was also stated that Villa was much in need of locomotives for his campaign southward and that this was his reason for hurrying northward to Torreon instead of pursuing the whirlwind campaign he had mapped out.

Mediators Decide on Recess.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 1.—An indefinite recess of mediation was decided upon by Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil and Ministers Suarez and Naon of Chile and Argentina, respectively. This action followed the receipt of a note from General Carranza expressing an inclination to participate in informal conferences with Huerta delegates for the solution of Mexico's internal problems, but asking for more time in which to consult his subordinate generals.

Voters of St. Louis Adopt New Charter

St. Louis, July 1.—The voters of St. Louis adopted a new city charter, which, within sixty days, will begin the inauguration of radical reforms in the municipal administration. The total vote as given out by the board of election commissioners was 46,839 for and 44,158 against the charter.

Democratic Senators to Confer.

Washington, July 1.—A conference of Democratic senators was called by Majority Leader Kern to act on a resolution announcing to the country that congress will stay in Washington until it has disposed of anti-trust legislation.

Clark and Marshall to Have Cars.

Washington, July 1.—After days of parliamentary wrangling both houses of congress agreed to the appropriation for automobiles for Vice President Marshall and Speaker Clark. Each will have a car costing $4,500.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin entertained a number of guests at dinner at their suburban home Sunday noon, the party including Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Green and family of Everett, Wash.; Miss Hazel Martin and Henry Martin.

W. R. C. Meeting Called Off.

The regular meeting of the Women's Relief Corps which was to have been held Saturday afternoon has been called off on account of the day being the Fourth of July and many of the members planning to be out of the city.

Final Meet of Guild.

Misses Sadie and Ethel Woods entertained the Westminster Guild at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The hours were devoted to the study of Mexico, which the members are now engaged with. The meetings will be adjourned through the months of July and August.

Millers Entertain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, living west of Boicow, entertained with a dinner Sunday, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Miller, Misses Alice and Lottie Schrader, Miss Bessie Drydale, Miss Edna Miller, Miss Jauvernia Goff, Miss Bettie Miller, Misses Dottie and Fay Miller, Roy Roach, Luther Strickler, Leonard Drydale and Dean Goff Miller.

To Compliment Visiting Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cockayne and Mr. J. J. Enders, living northwest of the city, were the hosts of a jolly motor party Sunday when they took a bunch of friends to Lake Contrary, at St. Joseph. The affair was given in honor of Mr. Cockayne's sister, Miss Nellie Cockayne, of Hamburg, Ia., and his nieces, Misses Belle and Agnes Sherlock of Des Moines, Ia. The party enjoyed the day at the lake, and also a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Sherlock of South St. Joseph. En route home the party stopped at a shady nook near Savannah and indulged in a picnic supper. The crowd included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cockayne, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cockayne, Miss Nellie Cockayne, Miss Agnes Sherlock, Miss Pearl Booth, Miss Belle Sherlock, Miss Vida Wilson, Earl Sherlock, Arthur Wilson and J. J. Enders.

McClurg-Jolly.

Miss Carrie McClurg, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. H. H. McClurg, was married Tuesday evening to Mr. Scott Jolly of McFall. The wedding took place at the family home, north of the city, at 6 o'clock, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. P. Stillman, pastor of the Methodist church of Pickering. The wedding march was played by Miss Beulah Everhart of Pickering. The bride and groom were unattended and the wedding arrangements were very simply observed. A pretty combination of green and white was used in the house decorations, and for the dining table at the wedding supper which followed the ceremony. The guests were limited to the families and a few close friends, and included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jolly, and Mrs. Frank Allenbrand of McFall, Mrs. Anne Taylor and daughter, Mr. Miss Roberts of St. Joseph, Miss Beulah Everhart and Ernest Stafford of Pickering, Elmer McClurg, a brother of the bride from Hollywood, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McClurg, Miss Ethel McClurg, Thomas, Orville and Harold McClurg. Mr. Jolly and his bride left Wednesday morning for McFall, where they will be at home to their friends on the groom's farm, near that city. Wednesday a dinner party will be given at the home of Mr. Jolly's parents in honor of the newly weds.

Charming Morning Domino.

Blossoms in every conceivable place converted the Walter Mutz home into a real indoor summer garden Wednesday morning when Mrs. Walter Mutz, Mrs. Guy Mutz and Miss Jessie Mutz entertained a large number of friends at dominoes. The large porch had been screened and game tables were placed there as well as in the parlors and living room. Delicate Queen Anne lace, wild verbenia blossoms and sweet peas were combined in charming arrangement to carry out a color scheme of red, white and blue. Every detail was suggestive of the Fourth of July season and small flags were used with the flowers in decorating. The tallies were miniature firecracker designs and the luncheon appointments were of similar color and style. Punch was served from a bowl hidden with masses of the red, white and blue blossoms with Miss Lena Nixon presiding, assisted by Miss Jeanette Mutz and Miss Margaret McDougal. The guests were greeted by little Miss Mildred Wallace, a niece of Mrs. Guy Mutz, and the assisting friends were Mrs. L. C. Gann, Mrs. C. D. Bellows, Mrs. Emmett Scott, Mrs. Leslie Dean, Mrs. J. R. Brink, Mrs. C. D. Koch and Miss Nellie Conrad. The game prize, an ivory fan, was won by Mrs. H. L. Raines, and the consolation favor, a bunch of firecrackers, was awarded to Miss Nellie Douglas. Seventy guests were entertained. Among the out-of-town friends present were Mrs. Blake Alexander of Bushnell, Ill., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith, and Misses Lena, Blanche and Myrtle Nixon of Chicago, who are spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Nixon. The Wednesday morning hostesses will entertain an equal number of guests at a Thursday morning domino.

LANDS RESTORED TO ENTRY.

About 584,000 Acres in West Will Be Opened For Homesteaders.

Approximately 584,000 acres of land in California and Oregon have been set aside by Secretary Lane of the interior department under the enlarged homestead act. The designations include nearly 300,000 acres in California and 284,000 acres in Oregon.

The secretary also has recommended to President Wilson the restoration of 129,601 acres of withdrawn land in Montana and more than 43,000 acres in western Wyoming. These lands have been classified as coal lands, but examination by the geological survey has shown that they possess but little coal. On recommendation of Secretary Lane, the president has restored to entry 290,000 acres in eastern Wyoming, 50,000 acres in Utah, and over 250,000 acres in eastern Montana which have heretofore been included in coal land withdrawals.

The St. Joseph Market Report.

South St. Joseph, Mo., June 30.—Fat cattle prices advanced 10¢ to 15¢ last week, except on the commoner kinds, and the advance has been well sustained this week on decent and attractive corn-fed steers. Grassy natives are 10¢ to 15¢ lower than a week ago, these selling to poorer advantage as a result of more acute competition from Texas and Oklahoma grassers. Practically half of today's receipts at St. Joseph made up of meal-fed and straight grass Texas steers, 38 loads, the heaviest run of the year being on sale in the quarantine division. These meal-feds were good, selling at $7.90 to $8.35, while the grassers, in only fair flesh, sold at $7.10. There is little prospect that the next few weeks will see many native steers marketed, and the outlook is fairly encouraging for well maintained prices on all good to choice kinds. Cows and heifers show little change compared with a week ago. Good fat butcher stuff meeting a broad, active demand. Stocker and feeder prices show at 25¢ to 40¢ slump compared with the high point last week, the break coming as the result of slack country inquiry.

The hog market developed a little strength the closing days of last week. The market continued to mend Monday, a 5¢ advance being scored on most grades. Today trade ruled slow at 5¢ to 10¢ decline. Top, $8.35; bulk, $8.17½ to $8.32½. These prices are 5¢ to 10¢ higher than a week ago. Traders inclined to look for rather light receipts for the month of July.

Sheep and lambs were around 25¢ to 40¢ lower than a week ago. Best lambs quotable at $8.75 to $9.00. Northwest range stock beginning to show up. Ten loads of Oregon stuff here Monday. Fat ewes selling around $4.50. Fat wethers coming.—St. Joseph Stock Journal.

SAYS SUFFRAGE IS STATE ISSUE

President Tells Women It is Not National Matter.

FOR LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT

President informs them he cannot permit himself to be cross-examined as leader begins to quiz him. Delegation is disappointed.

Washington, July 1.—A deputation of more than 500 women suffragists met the president at the White House and were told by him that woman suffrage was a state issue and not a national one, and for that reason he would not use his influence for the passage of a constitutional amendment in congress.

In the historic East room of the executive mansion the president received the suffragists, who represented the organized clubwomen of nearly every state.

When the president declined to support the Mondell-Bristow amendment, which comes up for a vote in the house rules committee today, some of the leaders began to put him through a sharp cross-examination, which the president took good naturedly.

Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr and Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley questioned him on his attitude with respect to other national issues and after several of their queries, the president declared: "I cannot permit myself to be cross-examined."

That put a stop to the questioning and the delegation slowly filed out of the White House, giving expressions of disappointment and regret.

Favors Local Self Government.

The president told the women that his "passion is for local self government" and that he believed every state should decide certain things for itself. He classed the right of suffrage among the things. He told the women that the suffrage issue had not been mentioned in the Baltimore platform and therefore, he would be reluctant to take it up, even though his own ideas were different.

"The president of the United States has a dual personality," said Mr. Wilson. "First, he is the chief executive of the nation; and next he is the leader of a party. In both these capacities I must refuse to push woman suffrage as a national issue."

The president advised the clubwomen not to be discouraged, but continue their fight in the various states. He added that he was deeply interested in the question.

Don Martin and Francis Cummins will leave Thursday morning for St. Louis to visit Mr. Martin's sister, Mrs. Edward Lippman, and family.

LID GOES ON IN WEST VIRGINIA

Ninth State to Enact Prohibitory Amendment.

Charleston, W. Va., July 1.—State wide prohibition of the liquor business in West Virginia became effective at midnight. It brought the total number of states in the prohibition column up to nine. The list is: Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Tennessee, West Virginia. These nine states of total prohibition territory, plus the local no license area, make up 2,132, 726 square miles, in which 46,929,750 persons, or nearly 50 per cent of the country's population, live, according to the latest figures of the prohibition leaders.

The 92,000 majority with which the people of West Virginia accepted the dry proposition was relatively the largest ever given by any state. It was approximately two to one for statewide suppression of the liquor business. It was a surprise even to the prohibition forces, who were indebted largely to the determined stand which many of the large employers took in favor of their cause. The state has a population of 1,221,119.

Breweries and distilleries have been going out of business for a month because they feared pecuniary loss attending large stocks when the end came, and others in order that their plants might be rebuilt for other manufacturing purposes. One large brewery in Wheeling is almost ready to open as a meat packing house.

Lassen Peak Again In Eruption.

Red Bluff, Cal., July 1.—Lassen peak exploded in its eleventh eruption since May 30 with a dense column of black smoke that shot up thousands of feet and then drifted slowly northward. A few minutes later a smaller column of black smoke, fringed with whitish steam, ascended more gradually and is still rising. The eruption has lasted longer and has the appearance of being more violent than any that preceded it.

FIREWORKS ARE PROHIBITED BEFORE THAT DAY.

LIMIT SIZE AND KIND

Most Stores Will Close—Groceries Open Until Noon—One Delivery of City Mail.

It looks as if there would be no Fourth of July in Maryville if one were to judge by the store windows, for there is not a firecracker, rocket or anything else in sight. This is because of the city ordinance which prohibits the sale or display of fireworks before the Fourth of July.

The same ordinance prohibits the sale or use of dynamite canes, cap pistols or caps, toy cannons, bombs or firearms. Firecrackers are limited to three inches in length and one-quarter of an inch in diameter.

But if one should try to do much business downtown next Saturday he will find that Maryville is having a Fourth of July. Nearly every business house is to be closed all or a part of the day. The banks and dry goods stores will be closed all day. The groceries and barber shops have announced that they will close at noon. All the city and county offices will be closed.

There will be one complete delivery of mail in the city July 4, but there will be no rural deliveries. The general delivery window of the postoffice will be open from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. The lobby will be open all day.

"DRAG THE ROADS NOW."

Rain Has Made Them Workable, a Condition That May Not Last Long, Says Clary.

"The roads of the county should be dragged now while they are still soft from yesterday's rain, for it may be the last rain we will have for some time," said John Clary, county highway engineer, today.

Mr. Clary says that the county has received no road money from the state since February, but that possibly some more will be sent soon. State Highway Engineer Buffum has written to Mr. Clary urging that the money be made to go as far as possible and that the roads be dragged wherever it is necessary.

RANDOLPH TALKS AT NORMAL.

Minister Speaks to Students on "The Value of Purpose"—Differentiates It From Desire.

The Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church made a short talk to the Normal students during the assembly hour this morning. His topic was "The Value of Purpose."

"Purpose," said Mr. Randolph, "is the will-directed action to the accomplishment of a definite end." The speaker said that desire was often confused with purpose, but differentiated them by saying that desire was a passive seeking, while purpose implied the active seeking of an ideal.

"Most of us," he continued, "have more desires than we have purposes and are more likely to 'start up the stairway of success' than we are to step up it. Purpose is the concentration of forces, and forms one of the most effective instruments of progress."

MISSOURI FARM FACTS.

State Board of Agriculture Preparing Interesting Lecture With Slides.

"Missouri and Its Agricultural Resources," is the subject of an illustrated lecture being prepared by the state board of agriculture for use in extension work in this state. J. Kelley Wright is preparing the lecture and having the slides made. The lecture will be delivered for the first time at Honesville, Shelby county, July 24.

"Missouri does not get boosted and advertised," said Mr. Wright, "because there are so many sides to the story that no one essential thing is pushed. Colorado is pushed as a mining state. That is its chief feature. Well, Missouri's zinc, lead and coal output would buy the gold mining in Colorado in the same length of time. Missouri ranks first in poultry, mules, peaches, zinc and lead, fruit, strawberries and general and diversified agricultural resources."

"This lecture will not be the truth through a magnifying glass, but just the truth. The slides, one hundred and fifty or more in number, will show the famous saddle horses, the world famous milch cows, the prize winning pigs and sheep and chickens, the fields of grain, the beautiful scenery, the lowing herds under the overhanging trees—all the beautiful and striking things about Missouri agriculture."

J. Kelley Wright has been lecturing on Missouri for six years. "How long will this lecture last?" he was asked. "Well," he replied, "about an hour and a half is the usual length of such lectures, but of course it would be possible to talk until everyone got tired and left, and still leave much untold."

Last night Maryville had "Maryville Has It."

The first public exhibition of the motion picture reel of Maryville, made from beginning to end by F. R. Marcell of this city, proved last night the reports that had gone before it telling of its good qualities. It is on the whole a very clear film, and the persons in it are easily recognized. All over the theater could be heard such expressions as "There's So-and-So," "See how Mayor Wright stands with his back to the machine," "Here comes my sister," "Gee! Look at that foolish grin on my face."

The reel begins with a scene at the Burlington station. After the train pulls in the usual large crowd gets off at Maryville, and packed in the motor busses and cabs the persons are started to town. Next comes views of the business streets, with motor cars and delivery wagons hurrying in all directions. And if the real motor cars on the streets honked as much as Miss Ola Smith honked for them in the pictures last night there would be no traffic troubles at the street corners.

A picture of the McDonald factory is shown at closing time. Mr. Marcell did not get more than half of the girls coming out, though for a while he was busily cranking his camera in front of the building many timid ones were going out the side door, jumping off a high platform and cutting across lots in order to avoid the glass eye of the machine. This, however, does not show in the picture.

A view of the Elks club shows the members marching to their flag day exercises. They face the camera in all kinds of moods. Some can't look directly at it and seemed very much ashamed of themselves. To Eldon Irwin it seems the greatest joke of his life. Then there is Dr. Stinson and H. L. Raines and everybody else, with Tom Parle loitering along behind, smiling and bowing to everyone, evidently trying to make up for his being last by not being least.

When the scene shifted to the Central high school it seemed as if the children never would stop pouring out of the doors. They kept coming and coming until it seemed as if Maryville was populated with nothing but school children. Some came with books and some without, some marched stiffly along as if they feared the teacher and were afraid to break ranks, others skipped, jumped or ran down the steps, and some just got down them.

The Normal, churches, water works and electric light plant all came in for their share of allotted space in the film, and it ended with a very good exhibition run by the fire department.

The same reel will be shown again tonight at the Empire theatre.

LINEBAUGH WILL

FINAL SETTLEMENT OF $300,000 SUIT MADE YESTERDAY.

Yesterday, just three years and two days from the opening day of the trial of the Linebaugh will case, June 28, 1911, the supreme court of Missouri gave its decision sustaining the will. The case was a famous one at the time, involving nearly $300,000. It was brought by eight grandchildren of the deceased, Jacob Linebaugh, in an effort to break his will.

The decision which was given yesterday by A. M. Woodson, presiding judge of the supreme court, and concurred in by the other judges, covers thirty-three typewritten pages. It holds that the case was properly submitted to the jury by the circuit judge, that no error was made in giving or refusing instructions, or in the admission and exclusion of testimony in the trial.

The seven Burch grandchildren and the granddaughter, Mrs. James Andrew, filed the suit contesting the will with the circuit clerk October 27, 1910.

The Linebaugh will case was tried before Judge W. C. Ellison June 28, 1911, and the verdict of the jury sustaining the will was brought in July 7, 1911.

The suit was brought by the heirs of Sarah Jane Burch, who died in June, 1910, a daughter of the late Jacob Linebaugh, and by the only heir of Francis Linebaugh, who was a deceased son of Jacob Linebaugh, Anna Rosetta Andrew. The suit was contested largely on the grounds of undue influence being brought to bear on Mr. Linebaugh by his wife and his son, W. Jeff Linebaugh, when he made out his will, September 1, 1910.

The Linebaugh estate is valued at nearly $300,000. The will was probated in court October 19, 1910. Edward E. Williams was appointed administrator pendente lite.

The death of Jacob Linebaugh occurred in October, 1910, at the age of 82 years. According to the terms of the will, it left nearly all the real and personal property to his widow and his three children, W. J. Linebaugh, Mrs. Julia Farrens and Mrs. Mary Etta Hulise. The seven heirs of his daughter, Sarah Jane Burch, were to receive $500 each when the settlement of the estate was made, and Mrs. Anna Andrew was left $500 and nineteen and a half acres, which she claimed rightfully belonged to her.

The case was one of the most important ones that has been tried in circuit, and was hotly contested. Cook, Cummins & Dawson, assisted by B. R. Martin of St. Joseph, were the attorneys for the plaintiffs, while Shinsbarger, Blagg & Ellison, assisted by J. Woodson Peery of Albany, were the attorneys for the Linebaughs.

The jury in the case was composed of James Aldrich, Hugh McDonald, Peter Schaffer, Charles Dougherty, Andy Garnett, E. E. Coker, W. H. Chambers, Roxie Hocker, Charles Owens, C. A. Dodds and John Kennedy.

The jury, after being out a few hours, returned a verdict sustaining the will. The verdict was signed by ten jurors.

This is ahead of the previous high mark of 515, the total registration for the summer term last year.

Not only are there more students in the Normal this summer, but they are more advanced than formerly. The number of classes in advanced work, especially in education and science, is greater than ever before.

Here's a Eugenic Chart.

Plots of the eugenic movement were given the following chart recently by W. L. Tower, associate professor at the University of Chicago:

If both parents have light hair, their children will have light hair.

If both parents have dark hair of the glossy variety, about one child out of four will have red hair.

If both parents have fair skins, ninety-one times out of a hundred the child will be a blonde, once out of fifteen times it will be of an intermediate type, and once out of fifty-five times a brunette.

If both parents are tall or short, their children will follow their example, while if one parent is tall and the other short, the children will be either tall or medium, but never "shorties."

"If we develop a race made up wholly of Sir Isaac Newtons and Charles Darwins," said Professor Tower, "who will haul the garbage? We must have an immense diversity of people."—New York World.

DRAWING EARTH ROADS.

Simplest and Cheapest Way to Maintain Certain Highroads in Good Condition.

The road drag is the simplest and least expensive contrivance yet devised for maintaining earth roads, according to the experts in the U. S. department of agriculture, who are co-operating with state and county authorities in work for better roads.

Properly used, the drag gives the needed crown to the road, smoothes out ruts and other irregularities, spreads out puddles of water, thereby accelerating the drying of the road, and makes the surface more or less impervious to water by smearing over the so-called pores in the earthy material. The cost of operation depends upon local conditions and the thoroughness with which the work is done. It is safe to say, however, that it is less expensive than any other efficient system of upkeep.

Farmers' bulletin No. 597 of the department of agriculture discusses under the title of "The Road Drag and How It Is Used" the best methods of maintaining earth roads in good condition by this simple device.

In its simplest form the road drag consists of an ordinary log split in half and the two halves connected like the uprights of a ladder by means of cross sticks or rungs set in. The log should be about 7 or 8 inches in diameter, and from 6 to 8 feet in length. It is better to have it of well seasoned, hard, tough wood. The two semi-cylindrical halves of the log form the runners of the drag, and are usually spaced from 39 to 35 inches apart. The front runner is always placed with the split surface of the wood facing forward, but the rear runner sometimes has its rounded face in front. This is done in order to increase the smearing action of the drag as it passes over the surface of the road.

The two runners are not placed directly behind each other, but are "offset," as it is called, from 12 to 16 inches. This is done because the drag is drawn over the road at an angle sufficient to make the runners free themselves of the material which they scrape.

In order to provide standing room for the man it is usual to nail two boards down upon the rungs parallel to the runners. Standing upon these, a skillful driver will bear his weight in such a way as to aid materially in the successful operation of the drag.

The drag is drawn by a chain which should be about 8 feet long. This can be fastened by eye bolts to each end of the front runner, or one end of the chain can pass through a hole at the discharge end of the front runner, and the other end be looped over the rung at the cutting end of the runner. It is important that the hitching link should be so designed that its position can be changed readily. It is also desirable to provide a metal cutting edge for the front runner. This can be made from a strip of iron or steel, and old wagon tires have frequently proved satisfactory.

The cost of such a drag varies from $2 to perhaps $10 or $12. This practically insignificant outlay will secure an implement that will be of great service to the community for at least three or four years. The fact cannot be overlooked, however, that skill in the use of the drag is indispensable.

The angle that the runners make with the center line of the road, the skew angle, as it might be called, is an important factor. For example, if the dragging is done to increase the crown of the road, the drag should be sufficiently skewed to discharge all material as rapidly as it is collected on the runners. On the other hand, the conditions may be such that it is desirable to carry along this material in order to deposit it where there are depressions in the road's surface. An intelligent operator will soon learn many ways of controlling the action of the drag. The length of the hitching chain, the disposition of the operator's weight, the time when the dragging is done, all these exert a marked influence upon the results.

As to the time for dragging, a safe rule to follow is to drag the road when the material composing the surface contains sufficient moisture to compact readily, but its not sufficiently wet for traffic to produce mud.

Since the weather plays so important a part in the matter, it is not usually possible to arrange continuous employment for teams on the road. It is therefore desirable, whenever possible, to have the dragging done by persons interested in the road, who will do it in the intervals of other occupations.

Paul Sisson and Robert G. Sanders left Tuesday for Estes Park, Col., where they will spend a month.

SEN. S REPRESENTATIVES

Beneath Dignity of Carranza to Go to Meet Villa.

Douglas, Ariz., July 1.—The definite statement that the proposed trip of General Carranza to meet General Villa in Torreon would be "beneath the dignity of the first chief" and that therefore Carranza had sent personal representatives was made at Constitutional headquarters in Agua Prieta.

It was also stated that Villa was much in need of locomotives for his campaign southward and that this was his reason for hurrying northward to Torreon instead of pursuing the whirlwind campaign he had mapped out.

Mediators Decide on Recess.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 1.—An indefinite recess of mediation was decided upon by Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil and Ministers Suarez and Naon of Chile and Argentina, respectively. Voters of St. Louis Adopt New Charter. St. Louis, July 1.—The voters of St. Louis adopted a new city charter, which, within sixty days, will begin the inauguration of radical reforms in the municipal administration. of Pickering. The wedding march was played by Miss Beulah Everhart of Pickering. The bride and groom were unattended and the wedding arrangements were very simply observed. A pretty combination of green and white was used in the house decorations, and for the dining table at the wedding supper which followed the ceremony. The guests were limited to the families and a few close friends, and included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jolly, and Mrs. Frank Allenbrand of McFall, Mrs. Anne Taylor and daughter, Mr. Miss Roberts of St. Joseph, Miss Beulah Everhart and Ernest Stafford of Pickering, Elmer McClurg, a brother of the bride from Hollywood, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Charming Morning Domino.

Blossoms in every conceivable place converted the Walter Mutz home into a real indoor summer garden Wednesday morning when Mrs. Walter Mutz, Mrs. Guy Mutz and Miss Jessie Mutz entertained a large number of friends at dominoes. The large porch had been screened and game tables were placed there as well as in the parlors and living room. Delicate Queen Anne lace, wild verbenia blossoms and sweet peas were combined in charming arrangement to carry out a color scheme of red, white and blue. Every detail was suggestive of the Fourth of July season and small flags were used with the flowers in decorating. The tables were miniature firecracker designs and the luncheon appointments were of similar color and style. Punch was served from a bowl hidden with masses of the red, white and blue blossoms with Miss Lena Nixon presiding, assisted by Miss Jeanette Mutz and Miss Margaret McDougal. The guests were greeted by little Miss Mildred Wallace, a niece of Mrs. Guy Mutz, and the assisting friends were Mrs. L. C. Gann, Mrs. C. D. Bellows, Mrs. Emmett Scott, Mrs. Leslie Dean, Mrs. J. R. Brink, Mrs. C. D. Koch and Miss Nelle Conrad. The game prize, an ivory fan, was won by Mrs. H. L. Raines, and the consolation favor, a bunch of firecrackers, was awarded to Miss Nellie Douglas. Seventy guests were entertained. Among the out-of-town friends present were Mrs. Blake Alexander of Bushnell, Ill., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith, and Misses Lena, Blanche and Myrtle Nixon of Chicago, who are spending the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Nixon. The Wednesday morning hostesses will entertain an equal number of guests at a Thursday morning domino.

About 584,000 Acres in West Will Be Opened For Homesteaders.

Approximately 584,000 acres of land in California and Oregon have been set aside by Secretary Lane of the interior department under the enlarged homestead act. The designations include nearly 300,000 acres in California and 284,000 acres in Oregon.

The secretary also has recommended to President Wilson the restoration of 129,601 acres of withdrawn land in Montana and more than 42,000 acres in western Wyoming. These lands have been classified as coal lands, but examination by the geological survey has shown that they possess but little coal. On recommendation of Secretary Lane, the president has restored to entry 290,000 acres in eastern Wyoming, 50,000 acres in Utah, and over 250,000 acres in eastern Montana which have heretofore been included in coal land withdrawals.

The St. Joseph Market Report.

South St. Joseph, Mo., June 30.—Fat cattle prices advanced 10¢ to 15¢ last week, except on the commoner kinds, and the advance has been well sustained this week on decent and attractive corn-fed steers. Grassy natives are 10¢ to 15¢ lower than a week ago, these selling to poorer advantage as a result of more acute competition from Texas and Oklahoma grassers. Practically half of today's receipts at St. Joseph made up of meal-fed and straight grass Texas steers, 28 loads, the heaviest run of the year being on sale in the quarantine division. These meal-feds were good, selling at $7.90 to $8.35, while the grassers, in only fair flesh, sold at $7.10. There is little prospect that the next few weeks will see many native steers marketed and the outlook is fairly encouraging for well maintained prices on all good to choice kinds. Cows and heifers show little change compared with a week ago. Good fat butcher stuff meeting a broad, active demand. Stocker and feeder prices show at 25¢ to 40¢ slump compared with the high point last week, the break coming as the result of slack country inquiry.

The hog market developed a little strength the closing days of last week. The market continued to mend Monday, a 5¢ advance being scored on most grades. Today trade ruled slow at 5¢ to 10¢ decline. Top, $8.35; bulk, $8.17½ to $8.32½. These prices are 5¢ to 10¢ higher than a week ago. Traders inclined to look for rather light receipts for the month of July.

Sheep and lambs were around 25¢ to 40¢ lower than a week ago. Best lambs quotable at $8.75 to 9.00. Northwest range stock beginning to show up. Ten loads of Oregon stuff here Monday. Fat ewes selling around $4.50. Fat wetters coming.—St. Joseph Stock Journal.

SAYS SUFFRAGE IS STATE ISSUE

President Tells Women It is Not National Matter.

FOR LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT

Washington, July 1.—A deputation of more than 500 women suffragists met the president at the White House and were told by him that woman suffrage was a state issue and not a national one, and for that reason he would not use his influence for the passage of a constitutional amendment in congress.

In the historic East room of the executive mansion the president received the suffragists, who represented the organized clubwomen of nearly every state.

When the president declined to support the Mondell-Bristow amendment, which comes up for a vote in the house rules committee today, some of the leaders began to put him through a sharp cross-examination, which the president took good naturedly.

Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr and Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley questioned him on his attitude with respect to other national issues and after several of their queries, the president declared: "I cannot permit myself to be cross-examined."

That put a stop to the questioning and the delegation slowly filed out of the White House, giving expressions of disappointment and regret.

Favors Local Self Government.

The president told the women that his "passion is for local self government" and that he believed every state should decide certain things for itself. He classed the right of suffrage among the things. He told the women that the suffrage issue had not been mentioned in the Baltimore platform and, therefore, he would be reluctant to take it up, even though his own ideas were different.

"The president of the United States has a dual personality," said Mr. Wilson. "First, he is the chief executive of the nation, and next he is the leader of a party. In both these capacities I must refuse to push woman suffrage as a national issue."

The president advised the clubwomen not to be discouraged, but continue their fight in the various states. He added that he was deeply interested in the question.

Don Martin and Francis Cummins will leave Thursday morning for St. Louis to visit Mr. Martin's sister, Mrs. Edward Lippman, and family.

LID GOES ON IN WEST VIRGINIA

Ninth State to Enact Prohibitory Amendment.

Charleston, W. Va., July 1.—State wide prohibition of the liquor business in West Virginia became effective at midnight. It brought the total number of states in the prohibition column up to nine. The list is: Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Tennessee, West Virginia. Those nine states of total prohibition territory, plus the local no license area, make up 2,132,726 square miles, in which 46,029,750 persons, or nearly 50 per cent of the country's population, live, according to the latest figures of the prohibition leaders.

The 92,000 majority with which the people of West Virginia accepted the dry proposition was relatively the largest ever given by any state. It was approximately two to one for statewide suppression of the liquor business. It was a surprise even to the prohibition forces, who were indebted largely to the determined stand which many of the large employers took in favor of their cause. The state has a population of 1,221,119.

Breweries and distilleries have been going out of business for a month because they feared pecuniary loss at tending large stocks when the god came, and others in order that their plants might be rebuilt for other manufacturing purposes. One large brewery in Wheeling is almost ready to open as a meat packing house.

Lassen Peak Again in Eruption.

Red Bluff, Cal., July 1.—Lassen peak exploded in its eleventh eruption since May 30 with a dense column of black smoke that shot up thousands of feet and then drifted slowly northward. A few minutes later a smaller column of black smoke, fringed with whitish steam, ascended more gradually and is still rising. The eruption has lasted longer and has the appearance of being more violent than any that preceded it.
